“We make it a priority to hire outstanding educators who are fully committed to what we do at Lincoln Lutheran. Our students deserve teachers who are “all-in” for their students every day — academically, socially and spiritually. The Lincoln Lutheran teaching team has such a wide background in international travel and other experiences outside of their teaching role. When an educator can bring “the world” to their classroom, learning goes to a whole different level.”

— Scott Ernstmeyer, Executive Director of Lincoln Lutheran
